Tentative
Travel Date 1/1/2022

Reason for Emergency Urgent Business Travel

Brief
Explanation
of A United States District Court has repeatedly ordered the applicants to appear in the United States as part of an ongoing litigation.

Emergency Most recently, the Court required the applicants to document "the actions taken . . . as well as actions taken on [their] behalf to make arrangements to travel to the United States for the trial." This order applies to Mr. Yuyi and Ms. Xiaomeng Yu, who must be present one month before the start of the February 7, 2022 trial, as well as the remaining applicants (Pushun Cheng, Changzhen Ni, Junfang Yu, Meixiang Cheng, Fangshou Yu, and Changhua Ni), whose claims will be heard immediately following the initial phase of the trial, and thus have a similar urgency in having their visa applications processed.

The next update to the Court is due on July 15, 2021. If the applicants are forced to wait until the fall to begin the interview process, they may not obtain travel approval far enough in advance to appear in the United States.

We therefore ask that your office conduct visa interviews of all of the applicants, and reach determinations regarding all of their visa applications, as soon as reasonably possible.
